Clariden Leu Appoints Stephan Peterhans as New Head of Human Resources

Zurich, August 25, 2009 – Stephan Peterhans to become new Head of Human Resources and Member of the Executive Board of Clariden Leu.

Clariden Leu, the Swiss private bank, has appointed Stephan Peterhans as its new Head of Human Resources and Member of the Executive Board as of March 1, 2010. He will succeed Jan B. Keller who has decided to take on a new challenge outside the bank. Commenting on the appointment, Hans Nützi, CEO of Clariden Leu, said "Stephan Peterhans will continue the systematic development of the Human Resources area, helping to further reinforce Clariden Leu's strong position as an employer of choice."

Stephan Peterhans has many years' experience and in-depth specialist knowledge of human resources. For the last five years, he has served as Head of Human Capital Switzerland at PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) where he has been responsible for the development and implementation of HR strategy as well as managing operational services in the personnel area. As a member of the Human Capital Executive Board he was also responsible for PwC's European HR strategy. He has previously held a number of positions in human resources, both at PwC and at other service companies in Switzerland.
