Top Marks for Clariden Leu

Zurich, November 27, 2009 – The Elite Report 2010 has awarded Clariden Leu the top mark of "summa cum laude" for the fourth consecutive year.

The "Elite Report" magazine, in conjunction with the German "Handelsblatt" newspaper, has once again honored the best asset managers of the year in the German-speaking world. A total of 147 banks and asset managers from Germany, Austria, Luxembourg, Switzerland, and the Principality of Liechtenstein were comprehensively analyzed and assessed by an international committee of specialists. Clariden Leu emerged with the top mark of "summa cum laude." The examining committee commented: "Innovative and always with the latest overview of markets and sectors. This is asset management for clients who value future certainty and performance. At Clariden Leu, tradition provides the engine for the highest quality in asset management." This outstanding result underlines the leading role of Clariden Leu among asset managers in the German-speaking world.
